According to legend, he tried to warn his king of an impending invasion but failed, so he drowned himself in his grief. While zucchini is probably the most popular, others include zander, zapiekanka, zongzi, zucchini, ziti and zitoni. These pastas are often associated with Southern Italy, and they were traditionally used for celebratory meals, such as weddings. Photo Courtesy: Popo le Chien/WikiMedia Commons Ziti pairs well with olive oil or a simple tomato sauce, although in the United States, it's often cooked "al forno" — baked in an oven—in an Italian-American dish known as baked ziti. It's sometimes prepared with a mustard crust in Bavaria, Germany. Other parts of the world, ranging from the United States to China, have also seen zander introduced to their lakes and rivers.This hot open-faced sandwich is made from sliced baguette topped with grated semi-hard cheese and any number of other ingredients, somewhat similar to pizza.
